

Cave Creek Unified Education Foundation Rock the District 2023 Sponsorship Opportunities

Who We Are (CCUEF)

The Cave Creek Unified Education Foundation is an Arizona non-profit 501c3 charitable foundation supported by community members, local businesses and corporations committed to maintaining Excelling Schools within the Cave Creek Unified School District. Our organization works to expand and enhance the educational experience for students in each of our community schools. CCUEF is dedicated to helping make the district's educational program a model for excellence.

Purpose of Rock the District

Rock the District is a student led concert that showcases the many talented teen performers from Cave Creek and the surrounding area. RTD has grown considerably over the years, both in talent and in audience, and remains a unique signature event. The money raised at RTD funds a Cave Creek Unified School District grant program sponsored by CCUEF. To date, CCUEF has awarded CCUSD classrooms over $300,000 in grants!

Our Mission

The mission of CCUEF is to provide the district with supplemental funding necessary to support classroom resources, international learning, music and the arts, and health and wellness. This is accomplished through fundraising, donations, grants, and endowments.
